

A QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER FOR RESIDENTS AND BUSINESSES OF LINCOLN VILLAGE

Lincoln Village Enterprise

LVNA to Sponsor 2nd Annual "Light the Village"

"Light the Village 2006" encourages neighborhood pride through the design and presentation of a holiday-themed display on the lawn and/or on the home. According to Social Activities Chair Lori Kennedy, "Light the Village" is another way residents can demonstrate pride in their neighborhood, which can inspire fellow neighbors to help beautify the Village throughout the year. "Displaying lights this season is a fun, family-building activity that can also help you make valuable connections with your neighbors," she remarked.

As with last year's event, LVNA has already lined Rancho Cordova's elite to judge the entries, including City Councilmember Dan Skoglund, Grapevine Independent Editor Shelly Blanchard, with others soon to be announced. This year, it's easier than ever to get your home featured. Simply fill out the entry form on pg. 2 of this newsletter, or email it to admin@LincolnVillage.org. The deadline for submitting your entry form is December 11th, with winners announced on December 22nd. As with last year, entries will be judged on creativity, tasteful use of lights, and theme. The contest will also be featured in a future edition of The Grapevine Independent. Visit www.LincolnVillage.org to see contest updates, including photos of our finalists, prizes available, and winners.

Don't Invite Burglars In

By Jake Stewart, State Farm Agent

Imagine coming home to find that someone has broken into your home, stolen valuable items, and ransacked your personal possessions. The feeling of devastation can be overwhelming for victims of burglary.

It's a crime we are all vulnerable to, whether we live in a city or rural area, have a high or low income, live in a house or in an apartment or condominium.

According to the FBI, a burglary happens every 15 seconds in the United States. It's a serious crime. A few simple steps can make your home a harder target for burglars:

- Lock all doors & windows before you leave or go to bed.
  - Leave a few lights on when you are not home.
  - Keep all garage doors closed and locked.
  - Don't allow daily deliveries, like newspapers and mail, to pile up when you're out of town. Ask a friend or neighbor to pick them up for you or arrange to have deliveries stopped until you return.
  - Contact a locksmith for advice on pick-resistant locks for your doors, sliding glass doors and windows.
  - Don't leave keys under flower pots, doormats, or other "secret" hiding places – burglars know them all.
- Be a good neighbor. If you notice anything suspicious in your neighborhood, contact the police immediately.

Whisperings Around Lincoln Village

Gang Tip Hotline: If you notice possible gang activity anywhere in the city, call 1-(800) 803-GANG (4264). Information can be left anonymously and is considered confidential by law enforcement. Do your part to clean up Rancho.

Charter School: Noticed the construction occurring at LV Drive and Routier? That's the newest charter school from Sac City Unified, which is slated for completion in 2007. Look to our website to see photos of the construction and more information.

My City Hall Online: Reporting street light outages, trash piles, and abandoned vehicles just got a lot easier, thanks to a new service available at the City's website. Create a username and password, and you'll have access to 13 general categories that cover everything from Neighborhood Services to Garbage and Refuse Collection. Visit their website at www.cityofranhocordova.org, and click "My City Hall Online" to learn more.

Welcome to Chief Meeks and Sgt. Haynes! Rancho got a new look last month, when Chief Ruben Meeks took over as leader of RCPD. In addition, Sgt. Mike Haynes will lead the Problem Oriented Policing, or POP, force. LVNA plans to meet with both gentlemen in the near future.
